Well, one more year is gone and its memories will never be forgotten. In your sweet silly way, you have added color to what would've been a very dull class. Gillie and I missed you in Shorthand, but I'm very glad we had some other classes together. Forever stay sweet because if you ever get stuck-up, I'll never forgive you.

This year it is appropriate that we take the opportunity to pay tribute to that which has inspired Blairites for the span of a quarter of a century—our Alma Mater. On their silver anniversary, these verses are as enlightening and significant for us as they were for students who echoed them for the first time twenty-five years ago. In the spirit of this enduring heritage and in the hope that these pages will recall to you who dwell upon them a meaningful and memorable year, we present the nineteen sixty-one SILVER-LOGUE.

"As the years shall bring thee

And thy share of fame, . . ."

Inspiration, information, and effective methods of instruction are the ingredients the faculty contributes to our years at Blair. Their efforts on behalf of the student body extend beyond the boundaries of the classroom to assuming the capacities of club sponsor, committee or class advisor, athletic coach, or theatrical director. Through all such activities they impart lessons in conduct and cooperation while creating enriching and rewarding experiences for the participants. By exemplifying throughout our lives those qualities and ideals they seek to instill in us, we may attempt to express our gratitude.

Our Principal

Our principal, Mr. Daryl Shaw, coordinated student and faculty activities. Although rarely in the limelight, he was the key figure in all school programs and operations. His formation of effective school policy made Blair the outstanding institution that it is today. Proudly we express our appreciation of his efforts and devotion.

To the Class of 1961—

The administration of Montgomery Blair congratulates this year's graduating class. We urge you to take full advantage of the growth and learnings your opportunities have afforded you. We hope that Blair has enriched your life and will continue to do so in the future.

Best wishes.

Sincerely,

Daryl W. Shaw

Administration

Executing school policy and applying it to daily life at Blair was the task of the administration. Vice-principals headed such departments as curriculum, attendance, and supervision. The contribution to the smooth functioning of the school made by an efficient clerical staff was also of great importance. It is too seldom that we give due recognition to the invaluable assistance provided by the administrative staff.

The vice-principals, Mr. Proctor, Mr. Craft, Mr. Vogt, and Mr. Gorin are engaged in a discussion of school policy.

Counselors

The guidance counselor's association with each student began by helping him choose a course of study. From the first conference until graduation the counselors maintained an active interest in the progress of each Blairite. Into this span were incorporated the many services they rendered and for which we are so grateful: the class changes, the discussions with parents and teachers, and advice about colleges and careers. The welcome atmosphere created by our counselors encouraged us to seek their beneficial guidance.

As Mrs. Zeigler patches J. Chilaty's finger, Mrs. Breakiron and S. Brown look on.

Library

Blairites have always taken great pride in their library, and justifiably so. It is through the constant striving of the students themselves, guided by capable librarians, that the library maintained its status as one of the finest in the county. Because of this excellent reputation, county officials decided this year to open our library after school hours and on Saturdays to encourage extended use of its valuable facilities.

Students make good use of their privileges in the senior corner.

English

We based almost all of our learning upon a single foundation—proficiency in the use of the English language. The study of literature and practice of grammar, spelling, and other technical skills paved the way for clear expression of ideas through speech and writing. Competence in this area provided a solid background for future educational experiences. Realizing the importance of conveying thoughts effectively, the men and women who formulated the English Course of Study for this year included a new program of Structured Composition.

Attending Sociology classes we concentrated on issues relating to religious, political, racial, and labor-management problems, and discussed church, educational and governmental institutions. Psychology helped us to understand human behavior as well as develop our own personalities and characters. Analyzing social, child-family, and individual-group relationships provided for a deeper knowledge and consciousness of our association with others.

Science was a fascinating and ever-changing field. To keep pace with the recent emphasis upon scientific knowledge, Blair added to its curriculum a two-hour course entitled Advanced Physical Science. In modern, well-equipped laboratories, pupils had the chance to learn by experimentation. The study of science challenged students to explore the mysteries of the world around them.

On lab days, students enjoy the hard work in Chemistry.

Mathematics trained us to think clearly and logically. The average person finds the need to work with numbers in his daily routine. For those working in more technical fields, numerals are the backbone of their profession. Designed specifically for Blairites who plan to enter the business world is the commercial course. The majority of students enrolled in it aspired to become secretaries, clerks, accountants, office managers, or to hold positions of similar nature. Typing, stenography, banking, business mathematics, and related classes established the proper background for occupations in this field. Emphasis was placed on increasing skills in everyday office routines, developing sound fundamentals, and preparing the student to secure employment upon graduation.

Concentration is needed to type accurately.

Girls' Physical Education

Although many girls may not be as sports-conscious as boys are, physical education for women assumed an appropriate place in the curriculum. Together with the skills girls acquired in archery, field hockey, basketball and similar activities, the course of study outlined the pattern for units in health, first aid, and social development. The opportunity for students to participate more actively in competitive athletics was afforded by intramurals, an extra-curricular offering of the physical education course.

It was the goal of the Boys' Physical Education Department to develop in individuals the qualities of sportsmanship and leadership. The varied schedule of athletics featured intramurals in connection with all the major sports. Coaches coordinated the curriculum so that students utilized both the boys' gymnasium and the Blair stadium to give them the full benefit of the program. The course placed as much emphasis upon character-building as upon physical skills.

Realistic and valuable segments of the Montgomery Blair curriculum were the Diversified Occupations and Distributive Education programs. Open to members of all three classes, each course provided both study and work opportunities. The four classes in the morning consisted of English, and three other subjects geared to the interests of the individual. The businessmen and women who employed these students in afternoon jobs worked with the school officials to make this an educational experience.

Blairites are doubly fortunate in the opportunities they are afforded by their school. Education begins with the ideas transmitted from teacher to student. Yet the learning experience does not end here. The classroom is only valuable as a place to lay a foundation of basic principles, which become useful when they are applied to our daily lives. The organizations which function at Blair serve as workshops where the fundamental knowledge students possess can be helpful in dealing with realistic situations.

Representatives to Student Council

Five Student Council representatives-at-large were elected by each of the three classes. To increase the efficiency of Blair's legislature, the student body this fall passed an amendment to the organization's constitution. Instituted by the Executive Council, it called for a Representative's Assembly to be composed of one delegate from each homeroom. The Student Council vice-president presided over the bi-weekly sessions of this group, whose power it was to introduce legislation into council itself. This new plan created a more effective correlation between Blairites and their government association.

Through the Representatives Assembly the homerooms are brought into closer contact with the activities of the Student Council.

Composed of the heads of all clubs, organizations, committees, and publications, the Activity Council was the body which established policy applying to all of these groups. Each year the Council's Executive Board sets up the qualifications for granting charters and the system for apportioning and distributing monogram points. The individual who served as chairman of this executive board was also in charge of the Student Council Activity Committee. Once every two years, committee members supervise the revision of Blair's Activity Handbook.

Welfare

Welfare is one of those committees which functioned through homeroom representatives. Money collected through student pledges was contributed to the organizations that the committee had delegated. The most recent job of the Monogram Committee was to revise the system for awarding points that Blairites needed to obtain their Old English "B". Members of the Chaplain's Committee were best known by the student body for the appropriate and inspiring invocations they gave before school each morning and at assemblies.

Election

The question of whether our system of conducting elections was as democratic as it might be had been disputed for many years. This December during the selection of Christmas Queen, the Election Committee conducted voting at designated polling places so that only interested students could exercise this privilege. Begun two years ago, the out-of-state student exchange program, sponsored by the Inter-School Relations Committee, became an exciting event. The visiting students spent four days at Blair, during which time the Welcoming Committee helped to make their stay informative and interesting. Welcoming Committee members also served as guides on occasions when other guests came to the school.

Ways and Means

Keeping everyone up-to-date about coming events was the Publicity Committee, whose posters and reminders covered walls and blackboards throughout the buildings. In fulfilling its function, to raise the funds to finance student council projects, the Ways and Means Committee sponsored the sale of student activity tickets. The purchase of such a ticket covered the cost of admission to "home" games and included a subscription to all school publications. To secure the money needed for our varsity's budget, the Athletic Committee engineered the selling of season football tickets to team supporters in the community. Operating a school store was an inexpensive and convenient way to keep pupils supplied with essential materials.

Handling the physical setup for programs held in the gymnasium was the responsibility of the Assembly Committee. When the gym was used for social functions, the Dance Committee took over. Its members did all the planning and work, from choosing a theme to decorating accordingly. Rules and regulations which were part of school policy were enforced by the Citizenship Committee, headed by the Vice-President of the Student Council. This fall the Safety Committee held an assembly featuring a guest speaker and a demonstration of motoring techniques. For the most part, the efforts of this committee were coordinated with those of civic organizations.

Assuming a particularly significant role at Montgomery Blair were the Crests and the Key Club. Each of these boys' service groups held an annual fund-raising event, the money from which was contributed to designated organizations. A young men's fashion show was presented in which Key Club members modeled apparel from a Silver Spring clothing store. A sports yearbook containing pictures and write-ups about individual players and team accomplishments was published by Crests for student purchase. Other projects the two clubs undertook, which exemplified the spirit that motivated them, were a landscaping program for the school and the collecting of canned goods so that less fortunate families might enjoy the holiday season.

The Crests hold a Food Drive to benefit needy families at Christmastime.

Keyettes

Girls' service organizations were a significant part of student life, for they distinguished themselves through their dedicated work in aiding school and community. Keyettes, the youth counterpart of the Ki-Wives of America, is a nationally-established group. Blair O'Debs, the older of the two, originated in 1955, is chartered within the student council framework. Prior to Christmas, the Keyettes held a three-day toy-repair workshop, and presented these gifts to an orphanage. A phonograph record constituting a memory yearbook in sound was the O'Deb's most original project for this year. Proceeds from its sale were donated to charity.

The members of the O'Debs are: Row I: N. Miller, J. Strange, R. Zehring, S. Rose (Pres.), S. Ellis, D. Hedgecock. Row II: L. Shytle, D. Sewell, D. Louft, D. Ahl, K. Pollack. Row III: I. Benjamin, S. Henry, D. Staubs, N. Immler.

It required hour upon hour of diligent effort to coordinate the program of the school's largest organization, and this was the task accomplished by the officers of the Library Club. The newly-formed United Nations Club possessed a steadily-mounting membership. Highlighting its activities this year was a trip made by a group of students and teachers to the United Nations Headquarters in New York City. The work of the Foreign Exchange Club and American Field Service made possible the visits of two of our students to foreign countries during the summer vacation and the sponsorship of a boy and girl from another land to spend the school year at Blair. Being hosts to these students is a stimulating and an enriching experience for all those who have come to know them.

Visits to exotic restaurants were among the attractions of the French, German, and Spanish Clubs. At the informal meetings of these organizations, students attained a closer association with the nation whose native tongue they were studying. Citizens in the community who have emigrated from these European countries were invited to speak about their homelands. Blairites who have traveled told of their experiences on foreign soil, often with the aid of slides and movies. Separate conversational hours were arranged and attended by members who wished to develop fluency in the exchange of ideas.

Performing a creative task, also was the stage crew, whose members constructed the sets and maneuvered them during scene changes. The Stage Design class had the opportunity to work as a team with faculty instruction and supervision. Highlighting all three of these were the chances to experiment. Future Homemakers catered the P. T. A. card party. Girls in the F. D. N. A assisted after school in a nearby hospital. Prospective teachers spent a week in the early spring as student instructors in county elementary school classes. These experiences were inspirational as well as worthwhile.

The Math, Science, Biology, and Chemistry Clubs provided the time, the facilities, and the involved instruction students need to round out their limited class experiences. Demonstrations and experiments were performed in the Science and Chemistry Clubs under supervision of teachers. The Biology Club delved further into plant and animal life by careful studies and research. The Math Club helped members to visualize and understand basic and advanced concepts in algebra, geometry, and the abstracts of math.

Blair's chapter of the Izaac Walton League strives to make its members proficient in the skills of outdoor living. Included in its program were riflery, archery, camping trips and social events. For those who were reluctant to brave the weather, the Bowling Club had more appeal. Teams met once a week in a ten-pin league sanctioned by the American Junior Bowling Congress and competed for trophies awarded to the high team and individual scorers. Enthusiastic supporters of the football and basketball squads joined the Pep Club and turned out at the games to root for victory.

Chess Club members devoted their time to perfecting skills and strategy, in order to compete expertly in tournaments with other area high schools. The game captured the interest of the players, for it challenged the mind and stimulated thought. Two other extracurricular activities equally thought-provoking were the Debate Club and Blair Forum. Everyone was welcome to attend Debate Club sessions and hear the negative and affirmative sides of an issue as they were argued by the participants. The Forum was an organized, open discussion of topics evoking current student concern.

Literary and artistic talents combined to create the Silver Quill and the two foreign language publications. Quill, appearing in autumn and spring editions, maintained an editorial staff which screened possible entries, planned the layouts and the illustrations, but the poems, stories, and essays were the work of student contributiors. Le Journal d'Argent and Der deutsche Adler, the French and German newspapers respectively, contained creative writing, pen-pal letters, crossword puzzles, and articles concerning culture and current events in the two countries.

Every third Friday, activity ticket holders received their copies of Silver Chips, the school newspaper. Regular features of this publication were editorials, letters to the editor, Senior Spotlight, teacher interview, sports page, and reviews and write-ups of past and future organizational events. During the fourth period each day the staff accomplishes the majority of its writing, editing, and proofreading. Other time was spent conducting interviews, gathering data for the student opinion polls, and covering important functions. The product of these many hours of work is an informative and stimulating journal.

Creating the yearbook, SILVERLOGUE, was a challenge to the imaginations and resourcefulness of the staff members. Once layouts were drawn up, editors arranged for the photographing of individual students and school activities and organizations. As pictures returned from the photographers, the prints selected for use were cropped to fit the established dimensions. The literary staff, busy writing copy, always kept in mind the theme of the book. Finishing touches were added, the annual went to the printer, and by the end of May, Blairites possessed a vivid memory album of the year 1960-1961.

Cheerleaders

Leading the spectators in urging the Blazers on to victory were the cheerleaders. At Friday morning pep assemblies they began to create the spirit for the ensuing competition. Wearing their sparkling red-and-white outfits on the days of athletic events, the girls set the pattern for all Blairites to don their school colors. Finally, playing their major role at the actual games, these cheerleaders combined their pep and personalities to gain whole-hearted support for the team.

Sixth period each afternoon found the majorettes and pom-pom girls rehearsing their routines. A precision group, they performed during the half-time festivities at all football games either at home or away. Particularly unique and colorful to behold were the girls who twirled fiery batons at the nightime competitions. Once the football season ended, the group began to choreograph and practice the sequences they executed, both as a team and as individuals, in local and state contests. Strutting to the music of Blair's marching band, the majorettes lent an air of pageantry to the fall sports events.

Sports

"For thy glory fight . . ."

Sports is that segment of school life to which is attached contagious enthusiasm and overwhelming excitement. This activity covers an area where everyone has the opportunity to partake of the glory; for Blair has a team more than twenty-five hundred strong. The best known of its components are the students on the field, who are constantly in the spotlight. Equally significant are the roles played by the band, majorettes, cheerleaders, pep club, and athletic managers, as well as the Blairites, parents, and faculty who crowd the stands and clamor for victory.

Varsity Football

Action, competition, and suspense, characterized the football season. This year Blair was fortunate in having an outstanding and dynamic team. Throughout the season the Blazers displayed the vigor and strength which extended to all of our sports activities.

Blair's Football Team completed the season second in the Bi-County League, with several of its members elected to the All-Metropolitan and All Bi-County line-ups. Under the excellent coaching of Joseph Good and his staff, P. Johnson, V. Pugliese, and T. Fox, the team was rated eleventh in the area.

The Blazers began the season with a crushing victory over Northwood, 46-7. The next triumph, over Suitland, 27-0, strengthened everyone's optimism concerning the future games of the season. However, our defeat to the strong Richard Montgomery team, 20-0, the next week, brought with it the realization that the Blazers had a tough schedule ahead of them. The team then proceeded to roll over Northwestern, 12-0, and Oxon Hill, 46-7. The exciting competition against the Wheaton Knights was by far the most frustrating, in which Blair lost to Wheaton, 20-19. Despite a tremendous drive in the last quarter, we could not manage the points necessary for victory. After downing Bladensburg, 7-6, and Highpoint, 27-13, the boys played their best game against Walter Johnson, winning 39-7. Several of our players received distinctions as a result of the W. J. defeat. Winning our homecoming game against Bethesda-Chevy Chase ended the highly successful 1960 football season.

R. Robinson carries the ball, contributing towards Blair's victory over High Point, 27-13.

F. Schaeffer avoids Northwood's attempt to tackle him with the help of T. Miles for the first victory of the season, 46-7.

The enthusiasm of the cheerleaders contributes greatly to the spirit of Blair's football season. At the first night game of the year, with Bladensburg, the cheerleaders rouse the Blazers to victory, 7-6.

At the Blazer's first loss to Richard Montgomery, 20-0, J. Rucucci attempts to tackle the Rocket quarterback.

Blair's victory over Northwestern, 12-0, marked the fourth football game of the year. Under the additional stress of night, J. Ricucci blocks a pass to a Northwestern end.

F. Schaeffer blocks a blitzing linebacker to gain yardage in Blair's first victory of the season over Northwood, 46-7.

Second in

Blair's victory over Bethesda-Chevy Chase, 21-6, ended the football season. This was the Blazer's ninth victory in fifteen meetings with the Barons. We have had five losses and two ties.

R. Mossburg clashes head-on with a Wheaton tackler. Blair lost this very close game to Wheaton, 20-19.

With the support of the enthusiastic crowd R. Ricucci gains yardage, despite Baron efforts to stop him. The final score was Blair—21, B-C. C.—6.

G. Lundy attempts to resist the tackle of a Wheaton knight. The game was a very important one in which Blair lost to Wheaton, 20-19.

Bi-County

During the team's triumphant season it amassed 244 points to its opponents' 86, and was ranked eleventh in the metropolitan area. The hard work of all the players contributed toward making our 1960 football season an outstanding and memorable one.

Under the able assistance of the coaches, the Blazers were second in the Bi-County League. Mr. Johnson advises R. Ricucci, B. Smith, C. Scott, T. Yezer, and B. Goodman, concerning tactics at the Richard Montgomery game.

Despite F. Schaeffer's gain of considerable yardage, Richard Montgomery beat Blair, 20-0.

Football becomes rough at times, as evidenced by this scene in the J. V.'s victory over John Carroll, 34-6.

1960 J. V. Football Team

The 1960 Junior Varsity Football Team won more games than any other in the history of Blair. With a record of six wins, two losses, and one tie, the team finished having the best record in the bi-county area.

Under the guidance of Coach O. Brockdorff, many players gained valuable experience and are bright prospects for next year's Varsity. Because of the outstanding ability demonstrated by the J. V. this season, the student body began to take an active interest in this team.

Soccer Team

Blair's Soccer Team completed an excellent season with nine wins, one tie, and no losses. The Blazers demonstrated their outstanding offensive and defensive abilities by accumulating thirty-nine goals, while allowing their opponents to score only twelve.

In the newly-created Bi-County Soccer League, the team rode to first place. Much of this success may be attributed to the direction of Coach G. Reynolds. This year's squad was the first in Blair's history to defeat the alumni, crushing them 6-1. Although the official Bi-County League will not continue next year, the team's performance this fall assured us that Blair will lead in future competition.

Cross Country

Our 1960 Cross Country Team trained under unusual circumstances. One of the few teams in Maryland that had no adult coach, it was managed and coached by one of the senior members.

Of the four dual meets in which the Blazers took part, they scored two wins and two losses. Their victories were over Wilson and St. Albans, their defeats by Frederick and Bethesda-Chevy Chase. The team came in second in their triangular meet with High Point and St. Albans. Their major accomplishments of the year included rating twenty-first out of twenty-five schools in the Johns Hopkins Invitational and sixth out of the thirteen schools in Class A. A. of the Maryland State Meet.

This fine showing can be credited to the industry and initiative of the boys who composed Blair's 1960 Cross Country Team.

Indoor Track

An important function of the Indoor Track Team, along with entering secondary school meets, is to condition Blair's athletes for the spring track competition.

This year the team participated in the Star games in late January, and the St. Johns games in early February. The highlights of their success included qualifying in the mile relay and scoring second place in the broad jump event.

Our track team accomplished its purposes well, for all participants were in top condition for the spring season.

Wrestling

This year's wrestling team, coached by Mr. G. Gienger, had a record of five wins and three losses. This was the best season the Blair team has had in its four years of existence.

The Blazers ended their season by placing fifth out of fourteen high schools in the Washington Metropolitan Tournament.

In addition to the fine varsity team, a Junior Varsity Wrestling Team was organized. Made up of the secondary men in each weight class, this team offered stiff competition to the Annapolis and Bethesda-Chevy Chase teams. However, it lost to each by a narrow margin.

G. Davis scores in the Northwood game, despite an Indian attempt to block him.

The Maryland auditorium echoed with the enthusiastic cheers of the Blairites, for Blair had defeated Glen Burnie by twelve points, winning the Maryland State Championship. This marked the fourth state championship Blair had received in the last ten years.

Blair had indeed an outstanding and unusual basketball season. The Blazers went undefeated throughout the season, winning 22 games and tying one. They averaged 70 points per game in comparison to their opponents 51, one of the highest averages of any Washington Metropolitan team.

The highlights of the season will long be remembered. During the second Northwood game Blair tied our scoring record with 85 points. In the second Richard Montgomery game, one of the players scored 38 points, breaking Blair's record for the highest number of points scored by one player. And, of course, no one will soon forget our 53-53 tie with High Point, the strangest ending in Bi-County history.

Under the coaching of Mr. E. Moffat the Blazers experienced a memorable season. School spirit was given a tremendous boost, as evidenced by the whole-hearted support by the students at the games, and the excitement and anxiety before the Milford Mill and Glen Burnie games. Blair will long be proud of the sportsmanship, hard-work, and success, of the 1961 Basketball Team.

J. V. Basketball

Supervised by Mr. R. Romano, a Maryland University student teacher, Blair's J. V. Basketball team had a successful season, winning 12 games and losing only 7. At their last scheduled game the Blazers upset the Northwood team, who had previously won 12 straight games, in a 42-40 thriller. Blair's average points per game was a high 46.5, while their opponents averaged 39.2. As evidenced by their performances this year, many of the members of the J. V. Team, are bright prospects for next year's Varsity.

Blair's Tennis Squad, coached by Mr. E. Moffat, had an active and productive season. Playing many top teams in the area, the boys gained the experience needed for their big game with Mercersburg Academy in Pennsylvania. This year the Tennis Team's opponents were: Bethesda-Chevy Chase, Walter Johnson, Western, Northwood, St. Johns, Coolidge, Woodrow Wilson, and Mercersburg. Although only two letter-men returned to the team, the large turnout of boys trying for the squad indicates Blair's increased interest in the Tennis Team.

Well-practiced seniors, together with a few underclassmen, made the Montgomery Blair Golf Team hard to beat. Coached by Mr. O. Brockdorff, the Gold Team encountered the following opponents: Peary, Wheaton, Bladensburg, Richard Montgomery, Northwestern, Walter Johnson, Northwood, Bethesda-Chevy Chase, and High Point. Success in matches against the other schools during the spring season, from April 7 to May 15, was a reward welcomed by these hard-working golfers.

Varsity

During the 1961 season Blair witnessed greater and more enthusiastic support than ever before for its Baseball Team. This may be attributed to the fact that the team started the year by defeating soundly its first three opponents: Western, 4-1; Sherwood, 5-4; and Western again, 7-1. They continued their season by playing excellent games with: Glen Burnie, Northwestern, Bladensburg, South Hagerstown, Suitland, Wheaton, North Hagerstown, Bethesda-Chevy Chase, Walter Johnson, Northwood, Oxon Hill, High Point, and Richard Montgomery. The coaching of Mr. S. Kulakowski, assisted by Mr. E. Smith, and the capabilities of the members of the team made the ball club a fine one of which Blair was justly proud.

Smith as their coach, members of the team gained valuable experience in the fundamentals of baseball, and will be important additions to next year's Varsity Baseball Team.

Varsity Club

Blair's Varsity Club is composed of athletes who receive their high school letter. Its members participated in programs centering around sports and social events. # Girls' Sports

Young women who want to become physical education instructors and plan to major in that field in college formed the Junior Majors Club. Their discussions and activities centered around their future profession. The Girls Sports Association was composed of intramural participants who had earned one hundred points. To act as a liason between the physical education students and the faculty of the department the Girls Planning Committee was created. Three sophomores, three juniors, and three seniors were selected by the girls and the teachers to serve in this group.

An important extension of the girls physical education course was the intramural program. Signups for such sports as hockey, paddle tennis, badminton, and bowling were conducted on a voluntary basis. The girls interested then met, organized into teams, and set up a schedule for the activities. The opportunities for recreation and for participating in friendly competition were the rewarding results.

Activities

"We thy students will be loyal . . ."

In order to provide a well-rounded educational experience for its students, Blair holds a variety of activities which supplement the scholastic program. Events such as Homecoming Weekend and the selection of a Christmas Queen are annual highlights. Assemblies center around the presentation of awards and honors, holiday celebrations, and occasions when special guests address the student body. Some programs are planned in conjunction with specific classes. Others are club-sponsored; and all of them are designed to be enjoyable and enriching.

Activities at Blair

An enrollment of over 2400 molds the pattern for certain types of activities. In a school this large, students became practical and stepped in to help with mass mailing procedures. It required nearly an entire semester to photograph everyone for activity ticket pictures. Even the voting process, because it grew to such a large scale, was re-evaluated and made more efficient.

Organizing the P. T. A. bulletins for mailing and operating the switchboard are a few of the activities centered in the main office.

Homecoming Weekend

With "Autumn Serenade" as its theme, the 1960 Homecoming Weekend took place on November 11th and 12th. Commencing with a pep assembly the seventh period on Friday, the festivities then progressed to a bonfire and record hop that night. Saturday morning found throngs of school and community enthusiasts witnessing the parade as it wound its way through Silver Spring to the Blair stadium. After an alumni tea, came the traditional football game against our rival, B-C. C. Couples whirling 'round the floor at the formal that evening added a last sparkling touch to a wonderful weekend.

Student Activities

Varied moods and emotions were reflected by students as they became absorbed in special events. With pride a service club presented a plant to the administration for display in the new offices. Tension and earnest concentration prevailed during the college board exams. Even smiles differed; whether posesd for a camera, contented while listening to organ music, or completely relaxed while enjoying the recreation of a social evening.

Christmas 1960

Proceedings leading up to the selection of the Christmas Queen began early in December, at which time the Senior Class nominated twenty-five of its coeds to compete for the title. Balloting by both juniors and seniors narrowed the number down to seven. These girls composed the Christmas Court and were presented to the student body at the annual Christmas Assembly. The election was then opened to everyone who desired to vote. The evening of December 26 found an aisle formed by eighteen candlebearers, a court of six princesses, and the attention of all those attending Winter Wonderland focused on the 1960 Christmas Queen.

The candle girls form an aisle for the Christmas Court to pass through.

Blair Spirit

Students at Blair enjoy the privilege of being innovators. Three years ago the members of the Inter-School Relations Committee sponsored our first High School Exchange Program. This year's exchange was with Abington High School, in the suburb of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Creative Blairites with particular plans in mind were granted charters to form the Varsettes, a girls' service club, and the B. H. R.'s, a group to promote school spirit.

Spring at Blair

With the early part of the second semester, activities assumed a rapid pace. Rehearsals were held nightly for the ensuing production of Carousel. Excitement ran high when the Blazers emerged victorious as Maryland State Basketball Champions. Students and faculty joined together in cooperating with the members of the visiting committee who evaluated Blair as volunteer workers for the Middle States Association of College and Secondary Schools.

Underclassmen

"Countless students coming after
Shall exalt thy name. . . ."

The future of Blair depends upon the enthusiasm and capabilities of the underclassmen. For the Sophomores, high school is a different atmosphere from any they have previously experienced, and it requires time before they feel at home here. Juniors, with a year of accomplishment behind them, are right at the mid-point of their Blairite careers, and are heading towards the next year when they will set the standards and assume positions of leadership. Members of these two classes, as their interest in school activities deepen, find that their endeavors are valuable and rewarding.

Laboratory periods provide Juniors with the opportunity to observe scientific principles in action.

Juniors spend many hours writing to fulfill the requirements of the new structured composition program.

Junior Activities

Junior students in Homeroom Section 11-2 salute the flag in daily homeroom exercises.

Seniors

"Hail to thee our Alma Mater
Hail Montgomery Blair."

Since our schooling began, we have looked forward to the time when we would become seniors. The relationships and experiences which comprised these past twelve years have enriched our lives and have guided us in our development as individuals. Looking back over this last year at Blair we can recall many wonderful memories—Senior Safari, Autumn Serenade, White Wonderland, Carousel and, finally, graduation. Our immediate emotions of sentiment and regret have slowly faded and have been replaced by an anxious anticipation of the future.

Seniors

The Seniors at Blair counted the days until graduation, attending the last game, the Senior prom and taking their last high school finals. They were busy job hunting or contemplating college. Then they stood in the hot sun, tassels over their heads, facing their friends and families. With a diploma and a hand shake they entered a new way of life, as freshmen in the world.

Senior Class Student Council representatives are: Row I: R. Mossburg, S. Ellis. Row II: R. Robinson, S. Wise, R. May.

Senior Class Representative Assembly members are: Row I: S. Hall, M. Joyce, S. McCall, D. Amoroso, E. Knapman, Row II: T. Shooman, R. Dove, J. Schulman, M. Dudley, M. Wharton, J. Strange, E. Foster, W. Goodman. Row III: J. Dayhoff, E. Reynolds, K. Lindsay, M. Mendelson, C. O'Reilly.

Patrick Henry said, "I have but one lamp by which my feet are guided, and that is the lamp of experience." If this be true, if the future of Montgomery Blair is to be determined by what has transpired this past year, then these pages are a testimony that the shadow which falls as this year comes to a close will give rise to a radiant tomorrow.

D. Staubs, F. Fioramonti, and J. Wishnia enjoy themselves at the Senior Safari, the class party.

F. Jacobs, S. Newman, C. Shuttig, and I. Benjamin play major roles in the senior class play.

F. Jacobs and D. Braithwaite are helping R. Bayne in The Happiest Millionaire.

Senior Activities

G. Sharp, E. Sumedi, J. Hevner, S. Gangloff, M. Sheer, S. Wexler, and L. Saperstein are comfortable in their bermudas on Senior Bermuda Day.

There is a special corner in the library reserved for Seniors.

At the Senior Prom, M. Gardner, D. Craven, S. Newman, and G. Smith are relaxing on the balcony of the Main Ballroom at the Shoreham Hotel.

Montgomery Blair students are pleased to acknowledge the Silver Spring merchants who have served them well for so many years. We extend our sincere thanks to these leaders who direct their efforts towards insuring the prosperity of our community.
